Wilson, N. C., December 15.—After a most interesting State convention, which has brought delegates from every section into a closer and better anderstanding of the necessity for organization and co-operation, many delegates of the Farmers' Union left to-day, following a delightful barbecus dinner in the Banner Warehouse, as the guests of the Farmers' Cotton Oil Company and the Contentnea Guano Company.

No money at all will be available for new buildings or extensions or more than the content of the content have been handled.

By invitation, R. A. N. Wilson, of Mississippl, was here to explain "Mississippl, was here to explain "Mississippl's Holding and Selling Plan."

Prosident Barrett, at the head of the National Farmers' Union, is also here to assist in the working out of the national co-operative proposition. The matter was left to the council, which is composed of the State officials and the members of the executive committee, with full power to act and devise a plan which shall have for its purpose the consideration of the financial problems which confront the farmers, especially with reference to the marketing and distribution of the cotton crop.

Control of $15,000, and the Radford school at $25,000. Nothing whatever is allowed for extensions.

Provision is made, however, in this estimate for $40,000 to pay in full 1911 pensions, which had to be prorated because the appropriation made by the last Legislature proved to be insufficient. There is also added $30,000 to pay 1912 pensions in full for those now enrolled and probable additions to the rolls, in addition to the usual appropriation of $450,000.

The Auditor suggests that county

The Auditor suggests that county trensurers be required to pay into the treasury all money in their hands on the first day of each month. "State funds in the hands of treasurers." he says, "cannot be lawfully used by them for any purpose whatever, except to pay juror and witness certificates in Commonwealth cases, and there is no good reason why such funds should be retained by them for lengthy periods. The State, besides iuncs should be retained by them for lengthy periods. The State, besides meeting ordinary current expenses, has to pay large aums every month to the State hospitals, educational and other institutions, and should have all her funds in the public treasury, where they properly belong.

Business Principles.

ent system too often results in an inefficient collection of taxes. By usdue duligence with the collection of tax bills, and when the time comes for his settlement with the Auditor, he sometimes finds himself without sufficient funds to make his settlement tax bills, and when the time comes for his settlement with the Auditor, he sometimes finds himself without sufficient funds to make his settlement promptly. If required to settle monthly, necess'ty would compel him to proceed with more energy and diligence with the collection of the revenue, and many treasurers would thus be saved the mortification and discredit of being unable to meet their obligations to the Commonwealth when due."

Captain Donohoe thinks courts sould be empowered to act in vacation in the case of commissioners of the revenue who refuse to send in their books by the time required by law. This has given the Auditor much frouble. He believes clerks, as well as treasurests, should be made to settle monthly. Further, treasurers, he thinks, should proceed against delinquent tax-payers immediately after December I, for this addition to the bills, he points out, is not done to entitle the citizen to extension, but as a penalty for not having paid by that date.

Despite the fact it continues, that this work has cost only half as much in money, lahor, self-sacrifice and nersonal service as that spent by Richmond people before the Associated Charlites was formed, it is handicapped through lack of funds. To carry on the work next year $13,000 is needed. The appeal through the press, made more than a month ago, did not meet with the response expected, and a denied of $1,000 for the past year still remains to be met.

Summary of Activities.

The summary of the different kinds of services performed by the Associated Charlites between the dates November 1, 1910, and October 31, 1911, reveals the extent and character of its activities. During this period 9,515 applications for ald were received and attended to. The Pelisco Matter.

On October 23 last The Times-Dispatch contained an article concerning Joseph Pelisco, or Plisco, and his wife, in which it was ceroneously stated that their place of buildings had been raided and that Pelisco or Flisco, escaped, but that his wife was arrested and later discharged. As a matter of fact the place was not raided and Mrs. Plisco, or Pelisco, was not arrested ad all. The difficulty arese over the purchased of some shoes by Joseph Plisco from one with whom he had been dealing, and it was settled in court.
